T. J. Anderson, of Topeka, who is connected with the U. A. R., telegraphed a field post that unless its members go over the route to Minneapolis that has been arranged for them, they can in future expect no reduction in railroad fares. Wonder if some one ain't talking for a pass?

One notice of W. H. Scott's pension was wrong in a small particular or two. He was a member of company "H," 8th Indiana, as stated, but his pension, which is $4 per month, dates back, or commenced to run, from the 5th of December, 1862, or nearly twenty-two years, and the arrears amount to $1,052.

Immediately preceding the confirmation services at the Catholic church Sunday morning was Peter's mass in F. which was rendered by the choir in a most excellent manner. The choir is now composed of the following fine musicians: Organist, Chas. W. Bates; bass, Ferdinand Schmitt; tenor, Alvin Clark; alto, Miss Mary Meisinger; sopranos, Mrs. F. Schmitt and Miss Lizzie Kelly.

Yesterday afternoon while A. J. Jewett, who drives Freeman & Peckham's delivery wagon, was in the neighborhood of W. C. Woodman's residence, the horse took fright and ran off. The animal was caught before it did further damage.

Thos. Snow, of Morris, Ill., an old friend of H. W. Kendle, arrived in Wichita yesterday. Mr. Snow is engaged in selling musical instruments, and quite naturally called at Mr. Kendle's store, though he was not aware that his old friend, whom he had not seen for many years, was running it. He and Mr. Kendle sat down and talked together about half an hour before they discovered each other's identity, or of course the surprise on each side was a very pleasant one.

The sacrament of confirmation was administered at the Catholic church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rt. Rev. Bishop Pink. There were forty children confirmed, and about twenty adults, six of whom were converts. This is a most beautiful service, and occurs in this part of the diocese but once in two years. It consists in anointing the candidate with oil consecrated with holy oil or chrism, and signifies that the person so anointed is strengthened and made a perfect Christian.

Round trip tickets from Kansas City can be had for $20.40. The fare from any point in Kansas to Kansas City and return will be 4 cents per mile one way. All tickets will be good to return on until the 31st of October. This will afford very cheap railroad fare to any one who desires to go north to spend a month or two.

If "Light Express," who writes us about the people on Market street, have been so outraged, why don't he hear she put his or her name to the note. And further, why wouldn't it be a good deal more effective and sensible to set down on such a man when election day comes, than to try to hit him over the shoulders of an editor. The EAGLE has never claimed that "the prohibition law is enforced in full" in truth, we never even claimed that we thought it could be.

The several ministers of the several protestant congregations of Wichita have decided to preach once each month on their own congregations on the subject of temperance, instead of holding a union monthly temperance meeting. The sermons will be preached at the same hour and on the same Sunday evening of the month on which the union meetings were heretofore held. There is this much to say in favor of the new plan, the meetings can no longer be designated as political mass meetings. The new programme was adhered to Sunday night and three or four temperance

THE RAMBLER'S APOLOGY.

In writing up the valley cities, I have on two or three days occasion omitted some prominent citizen; this, of course, was an oversight. In every instance so far the person neglected, is some old friend of the EAGLE, and of course the omission was unintentional. I feel that an apology is due my friends in Saratoga, on account of the very imperfect sketch of that city which appeared in Saturday's EAGLE. The fact is when I returned from my trip I was completely worn out and physically and mentally weak, and consequently failed to do justice to my subject. I will do better next time.
